

Code of Ethics

I, as a professional Dog Groomer in the pet industry, promise to accept my responsibility when caring for all pets. I shall enhance their beauty through proper grooming skills to help in the creation and style best suited the individual pet and its owner, to continuously educate myself and my patrons in the proper care and welfare of their pets. I will not discriminate against any person - to set an example of good will and integrity, show affectionate understanding and gentleness to all and always perform my duties in a humane manner.
